Saturday afternoon the 10,000 tickets placed in the hands of Secretary-Treasurer Dave C. Dinger, of the finance committee, who has opened Field Day headquarters in connection with the congressional headquarters, on Chapline street, opposite the city building.

During the afternoon several hundred tickets were placed in the hands of captains of the Rough Rider companies for distribution among their men; who have already entered upon a vigorous canvass. Captains of Rough Rider companies that have not secured their quota of tickets are desired to call upon Mr. Dinger to-day. There must be no lagging in the sale of these tickets, for upon it depends the financial success of Field Day.

Mr. Jason C. Stamp, the bicycle dealer, who is co-operating with the Intelligencer and Canton Repository in the conduct of the Intelligencer-Repository Presidential Relay Race, will on Wednesday and Thursday of this week, in company with Edward Salado, one of the riders who have volunteered for service in the relay race, make a trip over the route of the race on wheels, and arrange the relays. They expect to enlist cyclists in Cadiz, Urrichsville, Canfield and other intermediate towns for service in the relay. Local riders desiring to participate in the relay race are requested to call upon Mr. Stamp to-day and tomorrow. Only a few more are needed now.

"Why?" is the Question.

If Gregg Shorthand is such a poor, worthless system of rapid writing as some would have you think, why are schools adopting it all over the country? Why are court reporters changing to it? If it had been a worthless system it would not have lived during the last fourteen years. If it was worthless, authors of other systems would pay no attention to it; but they all realize that it possesses merits which their own system does not, and every attempt on their part to keep persons from learning it, only makes Gregg's Shorthand more popular. No other school in the state can teach it without purchasing their books from the ELLIOTT SCHOOL,

AT THE RIVERSIDE.

Company Will Make Another Attempt to Run the Mill This Morning—Expect to Secure All the Necessary Men.

There will be another attempt to start the plate mill at the Riverside this morning. Secretary J. D. Culbertson, in conversation with an Intelligencer reporter, said the matter would be possibly settled in a few days.
He said they had part of the mill in operation Saturday, notwithstanding reports to the contrary.

Mr. Culbertson further stated that the company agrees to pay the men the old rate of wages, and that was quite a concession. There was no question of wages when the mill shut down, and it was only when they were ready for resumption that they knew anything of any question over wages or recognition.
The Amalgamation prices were never paid at the Riverside. Anybody applying for work would be employed, and they do not think that there will be any trouble in securing men.

Reunion at Woodfield.

The annual reunion of the old soldiers of Monroe and adjoining counties will be held at Woodfield, Wednesday and Thursday, October 10 and 11. They meet there every year to march under the old flag, recall and strengthen memories and associations formed on southern battlefields. The Summerfield Guards, one hundred strong, uniformed and well drilled, will be there.
Good speakers and good music have been secured. Great preparations have been completed. All soldiers of all wars and their friends are cordially invited.

FALL OPENING—FINE TAILORING.
